

The Quest Academy in Selsdon results

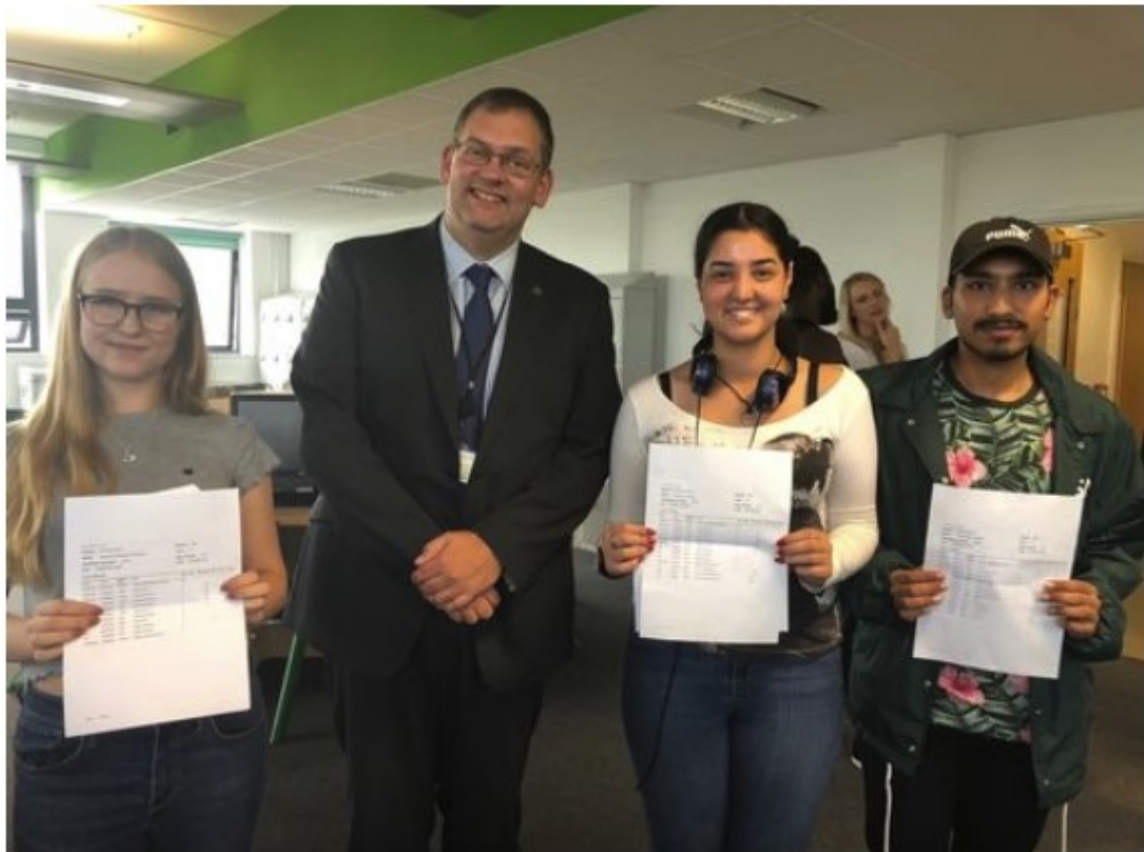

Students at The Quest Academy in Selsdon have achieved another set of excellent GCSE results, the school has revealed.

65 per cent of all results were grade 4+ (C+), with a larger number of subjects than ever before seeing their cohorts meet or surpass that figure.

Six out of ten students achieved five GCSEs between grades 9 (A*/A) and 4 (C), including English and Maths. All three GCSE separate sciences had a 4+ (C+) rate of 79 per cent or better and English achieved a 77 per cent pass rate.

The school singled out Hannah Little who achieved two 9s, two 8s, four 7s a BTEC Merit, and an A.

Mohammed Zakaria also did well and achieved a 9, an 8, two 7s, two 6s, a 5, a 6-5 and a BTEC Merit.

The Quest Academy principle Andy Crofts with Jasmine Florence, Hannah Little and Mohammed Zakaria

Guled Dubbad achieved two 8s, three 7s, a 6, two 5s, a B and a BTEC Merit, while Jasmine Florence achieved three 8s, three 7s, two 6s, two 5s and a BTEC Merit.

School principal Andy Crofts said: "Congratulations to all of our students on their results today. It's pleasing to see that in English 77 per cent of students passed with a 4+, in Maths 66 per cent passed with a 4+ and across the board 65 per cent of all grades awarded were 4/C or higher.

"We wish all students the very best for the future; it has been a pleasure to work with them."