Proposed Industrial Action- 15th & 16th March 2023

Dear Parents/ Carers,

You will be aware that the largest teaching union has planned a series of industrial action, with the next planned day on the 15th & 16th March (next Wednesday and Thursday). This means that we will need to close the school to the majority of students. The exception will be certain Year 11 and Q6 students, who will be invited in for specific sessions through a separate letter early next week.

Those students at home will have remote learning provided and this will be a mixture of live lessons and independent tasks. We will be in contact again if the situation changes. The following arrangements will be in place on 15th & 16th March:

Years 7-10

Students must stay at home unless individually invited into school by Mr O'Sullivan.

- For each subject, there will be work available on-line through Google Classrooms.
- Students should check their lessons for the day at 8.30am.
- Live, Google Classroom lessons will take place for some lessons- these will occur at the time indicated on a students' timetable (available through Talaxy). These lessons will be accessed by clicking a Google Classroom assignment in that lesson's classroom called "March 15th / 16th Live Lesson- Period X, TIME XXX". This assignment will be available by 8.30am so students will know what to expect during the day.
- For other lessons, specific or existing work (revision/existing homework etc) will be available, again through Google Classroom.
